NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE RADICAL ORGANS ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALLAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BIBLES AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE "STANDARD" AND THE "WHISKEY RING."

It is hardly worth while to correct any falsehood or misstatement that may be found in the editorial columns of the Standard newspaper in this city. It openly boasts of its consummate ability to lie and misrepresent, and smiles outright at those who are silly enough to expect it to tell the truth. This is so notoriously true, that it has become a laughing stock to the reading people of all classes, and a burlesque upon decent journalism.

It says, in a recent number, that the "Whiskey Ring" belongs to Andrew Johnson, and that his Secretary of the Treasury makes the small distillers pay $400 for license to distil. Now the author of this statement, if he knew anything about what he wrote, knew that this statement was unqualifiedly false. He knew that President Johnson had nothing to do with the framing of the liquor tax, that the Secretary of the Treasury had nothing to do with making the law, but that a Radical Congress enacted the law and made it what it is.—He knew that the President and the Democrats in Congress were utterly powerless, and that the Radicals in Congress made the whiskey law, just as they pleased. The President and his Secretary had nothing to do with the special tax of $400, or with the tax on the gallon. The law, as made by the Radical Congress, is plain. It makes no distinction between grain and fruit, but applies to all distilled spirits, whether made of one article or another.

The law reads:

"Distillers producing one hundred barrels or less of distilled spirits, counting forty gallons of proof spirits to the barrel, within the year, shall each pay four hundred dollars." (See "Internal Tax laws," page 25, section 59.)

Now, can anybody doubt about the matter? The language of the law is clear and unmistakable. The Standard, almost in terms, admits that it lies deliberately in the statement above referred to; for it says, "vote for Grant and Colfax, and if the $400 tax is not removed, we will guarantee that, at the end of Grant's administration, you will be better able to pay a thousand dollars than you now are to pay a thousand cents." Is it not manifest the writer knew he was writing a falsehood and wilfully slandering the President and Secretary of the Treasury?

But all the falsehoods of the Standard and its allies can not rid the Radical Congress and Radicalism of the odium and responsibility of the infamous "Whiskey Ring." The "Whiskey Ring" is, indeed, a Radical organization, out and out, and never was heard of, until long after Radical ascendancy in Congress.

Let the people read and know that this Radical whiskey law provides, that no one shall distil on drop of spirits from any article fruit or grain, without first paying a special tax of $400, and then paying 50 cents a gallon for every gallon distilled, besides paying for an expensive metre and giving troublesome bonds. If he does, then he is prosecuted in the United States Court, broken up and imprisoned—having in the meantime, been hunted down and persecuted by Radical Revenue officers. We ask the people, and especially the people of the West, if this is not true, and if they do not know it to be true,—many of them to their ruin and sorrow. The $400 special tax was intended to stop the small distillers. Then the tax on the gallon was put down to fifty cents on the gallon to benefit and enrich the "Whiskey Ring" man; he could pay a high special tax, because he distilled millions of gallons, but the high tax on the gallon would have ruined him, and, therefore, this part of the tax was put down! The purpose is manifest and too plain to talk about. All this partial and oppressive legislation is the fruits of corrupt Radicalism, and let the people hold the "Carpet-bag," "Scalawag" members of Congress, from this State, to a strict account about this oppressive and unjust way of building up the "Whiskey Ring" power in Congress and the Country!

RADICAL RUIN.

One of the chief causes of alarm, at the ascendancy of Radicalism and negro rule, is the utter disregard of its votaries for Constitutional and legal obligations. The Radicals laugh and mock at the Constitution; they say it is antiquated; they say it is not the life of the government,—that the popular will is the life of the government. This cry of the popular will is made in view of the negro power, and in the face of the Constitution. The object of the Constitution is to control the popular will, and keep it in proper bounds, amid times of great popular excitement, like the present. It was intended to prevent the popular will, under the madness and fury engendered by party strife or other means, from becoming a popular mob. The Constitution is emphatically the life of the government under any free system; strike it down and anarchy at once supervenes. The Constitution is the chart of government and liberty, and a popular mob has no more right to overleap its bounds and subvert it than an intelligent oligarchy; it is the touchstone of political virtue; it controls and rules all parties and all men, and, when it ceases to do so, government is gone and anarchy has come.

But we said that Radicalism did not regard Constitutional obligation. So it does not. Look at the doings of the Radical Congress. In direct violation of the Constitution, whole States are deprived of common right; they are obliterated and new political organizations established in their stead. In like violation of the Constitution, military despotism has been established in time of peace; the right of trial by jury has been denied; martial law established, habeas corpus abolished, military tribunals and Star Chamber inquisitions established, to crush out liberty, and many persons have, by virtue of these unlawful military courts and organizations, been put to death in the most ignominious way. Free speech and a free press have been suppressed, and millions on millions of public debt have been incurred to accomplish this end; and, further, to make fast this Radical usurpation and outrage on right and the Constitution, this Radical Congress has stripped the President of power, until his office exists only in name, and it has unlawfully deprived the Supreme Court of its lawful jurisdiction for the avowed purpose of preventing that Court from declaring that these Radical usurpations and outrages were unlawful. For the truth of these statements, we appeal to the records of the government, the journals of Congress, the statute books, the decisions of the Courts, the history of the times and the sad experience of the people.

How long can the government last, if this is tolerated? Can it be tolerated, and the Government live? It is manifest to the humblest mind, that it cannot. And this Radical power has become so arrogant, haughty and domineering, that it tells the American people, that if they rise up to re instate and vindicate the Constitution, it will make war on the people and the Constitution! Will the people be frightened from the faithful discharge of patriotic duty by such empty threats? Will they give up all hope of free government and allow anarchy, despotism, the guillotine and a French revolution to come upon us, because of so base and ignoble a threat as that thrown in the face of the American people, by this brutal, savage, selfish, Radical power? We know the degeneracy of the times, but we do not believe the American people will consent to this! If the people would save themselves and the Constitution, and, in this, the country, they must act, at once. Now is the time to put down this Radical power, effectually and forever!

This utter disregard of Constitution and law, on the part of the Radical power, is fully illustrated in this State, and we intend to expose it from time to time, as occasion may allow. We intend to hold up the Radicals here, till they stink in the nostrils of the people.

HOW IS IT TO BE DONE?—We hear that the authorities contemplate requiring each voter to vote for Presidential Elector and for a member of Congress on one slip. This is so clearly wrong, that we hope the rumor is a mistake. We have had enough of Gen. Canby's bungling. It is an evasion of the law, if not a violation. In each State, the people are required to vote for Presidential electors by GENERAL TICKET. Members of Congress are, however, voted for by the people in each District. The ballots ought, therefore, to be separate, and there should be separate boxes for them. How is it?

PREPARATIONS have been made for 10,000 people at the great Democratic Mass Meeting and Barbecue, to be held in Tarboro, on the 24th. of October.

Great Mass Meeting in Beaufort!

JUDGE WARREN ON THE SITUATION!

There was a grand outpouring of the people of Beaufort, Pitt, Hyde and Martin, in Mass Meeting, at Washington, on Wednesday, the 16th inst. In front of the elegant building of the Bank of Washington, which is occupied as a Seymour and Blair Club Room, a tall and graceful pole, with cross tree and topmast, was successfully raised amid the acclamations of a large multitude.

Col. D. M. Carter delivered a dedication address, which was chaste, beautiful and appropriate to the occasion. A song and a Federal salute followed, and a tremendous procession, headed by music, was then formed, which, after marching through the principal streets, halted near the Academy, where seats had been provided for 2,000 people. In the procession were the Seymour and Blair Cadets, uniformed in red, presenting a fine appearance, and, also, a colored Club.

At the stand, the speaking was opened in an eloquent and able address from F. P. Satherthwaite, Esq. He was followed by Judge Warren in a speech of great power, of which the Southerner makes the following abstract:

"Judge Warren followed in his calm, measured, pointed, ponderous sentences, probing to the quick the festering wounds of Radical misrule at every thrust. He said he had not purposed to take an active part in this canvass. So recently from the bench, he felt out of place. But if a Judge of the Supreme Court could descend to play the partisan and write letters to be printed and circulated as campaign documents, he did not see why a judge out of office should hesitate to make a speech. He did not wish to be considered a Democrat in the acceptation of that term in 1860, but times change, and men must change with the times. The National Democratic Platform adopted in New York, and the Platform adopted by the Democratic and Conservative Convention in Raleigh, contained good enough Whig doctrine for him. Seymour was a great statesman, Blair a generous soldier, and he would support the one for President and the other for Vice President. He proceeded to unmask the unconstitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, and towards the close paid his special respects to Chief Justice Pearson. He quoted Pearson against Pearson in the case of Hughes, and so preferred to let the learned Judge answer himself.—He did this part of his work effectually.—The Speech of Judge Warren produced the happiest effect, and if there were any wavering old line Whigs afraid of the name of Democrat, when he commenced, there were none left, when he concluded."

Col. D. M. Carter followed Judge Warren in a stirring and effective speech.

At night, there was a great torch light meeting, which was addressed by Col. Geo. W. Johnson, of Pitt, and Maj. Sparrow.

Old Beaufort is all right! Her ancient spirit is up!

Seymour and Blair in Johnston.

SMITHFIELD, N. C., Sept. 24, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—This is our Superior Court week,—or one of them, as, under the new regime, the terms are extended to two weeks. His Honor, Judge Watts, presides with all the ability and dignity that his reputation taught us to expect! Thus much of the week has been consumed, principally, by political speeches.

On Monday, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, our candidate for Congress, and Col. Wharton J. Green, our candidate for Elector, addressed a large number of our citizens, with good effect. If Downese could have been present and heard the ventilation of his career in Congress, as our representative, in very shame he must have hung his head, and, prompted by ordinary sensibilities, he would have abandoned the contest, rather than subject himself to a succession of such truthful exposures.

Col. Green followed in a telling effort.—Though an entire stranger, his appearance, deportment and speech made him many admirers, and we all agree that no better selection could have been made than Col. Green.

There were portions of Colonel Rogers' speech that caused feelings of the utmost indignation against the party of "moral id as," and especially did those feelings run high, when the "Standard's" advice to the canvassers was read.

The Radicals had notified the public that several of their orators would hold forth on Tuesday, and, it being ascertained these several orators consisted of Col. Wm. J. Clarke, of Newbern, and Mr. E. W. Pou, of this county, they were politely asked if they would object to being replied to, or, at least, Col. Clarke was so asked, and objected! Not that he dreaded a reply, at all, but for want of time! Well, the Col. told us many things new to us,—among them, that he endorsed the series of Reconstruction Acts, each as it made its appearance, and that if Seymour and Blair were elected we should have a "big war." By the way, it is fortunate that Blair wrote that Broadhead letter, for, without it, the tanners would have nothing to talk about and we should have no fun canvassing. However, he did write it, and Col. Clarke says that it means war. But our people say that they only recollect two occasions when war was advocated in this country, and that the Col. was foremost in the war party each time, and they fear that his military inclinations have led him to the sound—familiar to his ears in days gone by—of organizing armies, now heard in the camp of the "peace party."

They believe that if there is any war about, Col. Clarke would be a likely man to scent it out, and thus they account for the change.

Mr. Pou followed in an elaborate speech, in which he urged his experiment. He entertains queer views, you know,—acts with the party he condemns in so many instances. He is an "Equal Rights Man." That is, he has no regard for the equality of States, none especially for the equality of taxation, but is much interested in equality before the law, without regard to race or former condition.

He said hard things about the "Sandard" office,—denounced the article on "WORK" and its advice to canvassers, and said its author was either drunk, when it was written, on A FOOT. That was very severe for our amiable Radical.

Well he finished his speech after a while, and then the crowd called for Gov. Bragg. Amidst the most enthusiastic cheers, the Governor made his appearance, and, as soon as the applause subsided, began one of the most popular speeches, that it has been our good fortune to hear, during the entire campaign.

He was greeted throughout, at intervals, with the liveliest demonstrations of approval by the attentive crowd.

It is predicted by men from different portions of the county, that we shall be able to give Rogers a majority of from six to eight hundred, and Seymour and Blair in the neighborhood of the same majority.—We intend to do better than we have ever done. HOPEFUL.

[Correspondence of the Sentinel.]

Splendid Conservative Meeting at Hickory Tavern, Catawba County.

Messrs. Editors:—On Saturday, the 19th inst., there was one of the largest and most enthusiastic Conservative meetings at the above named place, that we have had the pleasure of attending for a long time.

On Monday before, Mr. Boyden, (the renegade, who last Spring joined a Conservative Club, declaring, at the time he signed his name, that the principles there set forth were such as he most heartily cherished, and intended to live and die by,) spouted forth some of his Radical ideas at this place to some two dozen persons; and Dr. Ramsay, of Rowan, the man who sought the Conservative nomination, at Statesville, for Congress for this District, and, failing to get it, turned his coat, came up here with Boyden, to make a speech in favor of the "Butcher." Their remarks fell flat on all those who desire the good of the country. Dr. Ellis made a short reply, and, in a few words, completely upset everything that had been said by these two scallawags. Dr. Ellis gave notice that, on the 19th, the Conservatives would have a meeting here, and requested all to come out and hear for themselves.

Under the supervision of Mr. Cox, Esq. Brune, Mr. Whisiker, and others, a splendid stand and seats were erected in the grove; a beautiful carpet was spread upon the floor, and the stand was most handsomely decorated by the ladies of the village.

Providence favored us with a most lovely day, and by 10 o'clock several hundred persons, both ladies and gentlemen, had assembled. At eleven, the speakers proceeded from the hotel to the stand—a string d band discoursing most elegant music,—when Dr. Ellis arose, and, in a few words, stated the object of the meeting, and kindly welcomed the speakers, Messrs. Luke Blackmer, Major Malone and David Schenck, to the stand, and introduced them to the audience.

Mr. Blackmer, of Salisbury, who represented Mr. F. E Shober, our candidate for Congress, (Mr. Shober not being able to attend from severe indisposition) first addr ss d the meeting in a speech of two hour's length. Too much cannot be said in praise of Mr. Blackmer's speech on this occasion. He made one of the ablest and most effective arguments in opposition to Radicalism, that this people ever had the pleasure of listening to. He discussed fully the financial questions, and laid bare the ruinous course that has been pursued by Congress—showing beyond contradiction that, instead of our getting out of debt, our liabilities are increasing every day, and that notwithstanding that the people have paid to the government nearly three-fourths of what the debt was at the close of the war, we are to-day two hundred millions of dollars more in debt than at the close of the war. He in detail showed up the extravagance of Congress and the Radical party in many other respects, and made plain the unprincipled schemes of the "Whiskey Ring," to which more than two-thirds of the Radicals in Congress belong, in depriving the common class of the people of the privilege of distilling their little fruit for necessary use.—In short, his speech was unanswerable. The Radicals will not meet the Conservatives in discussion,—if they would, and allow the "Leaguers" to come out and hear, and let the fight be an open and fair one, we would have nothing to fear of success.

Next, Major Malone, of Lenoir, Caldwell Co., N. C., addressed the people in an excellent speech of an hour and three quarters length. He paid a handsome tribute to the ladies, (of whom there were many present,) for their devotion to Conservative principles. They are the special guardians of society, and, at this time, when our whole social structure is being upturned by Radicalism, and true virtue and respectability threatened at every point by these Satanic wolves, it is of the utmost importance that God's most precious gift to man should step forward to the rescue.

The Major dealt heavy blows against the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, and showed Judge Pearson up in a most ridiculous light. He produced a decision of the Judge's, showing that in 1867 he had decided that President Johnson's Reconstruction was constitutional, and also a recent letter of the Judge's that the present Reconstruction Acts were "Extra-Constitutional," and said that; no doubt, his next opinion would make the next changes that Congress may make "Super Extra Constitutional," &c.

After he concluded, Mr. David Schenck, of Lincolnton, came forward and for one hour held the large crowd of people spellbound with his forcible and eloquent appeals to them to rally to a man and save the country.

His remarks were of the most touching pathos, as he depicted the awful crimes now being perpetrated in the country, and so frequently upon the helpless women and children, by Radicals and negroes. Language in print cannot express the emotions produced upon the audience by this appeal. The audience was kept vacillating between laughter and tears for most of the time. Such was the effect of his remarks. He paid a most eloquent tribute to the ladies for their earnestness in the cause of Conservatism, and appealed to mothers to use all their influence to save the country, and thereby themselves and posterity, from ruin and degradation.

This meeting has been productive of the greatest good in this community. The great majority here are all right, and Catawba will give a handsome majority for the Conservative ticket in the next election.

At three o'clock, the speaking closed and the people returned home much rejoiced, and expressing themselves thoroughly satisfied with what they had heard and a determination to work for the great reformation.

A CONVERSATION.

PITTSBORO, Sept. 24, 1868.

The following dialogue recently occurred in this county, between a Conservative and a prominent native Scallawag:

Scallawag.—If Seymour is elected, it is as certain as anything in the future can be, that we shall have a war of races in North Carolina. No question of this.

Conservative.—Do you think that they can be elected without a majority of the Northern votes are cast for them?

Scal.—No. They can't be elected, unless a majority of the North vote for them.

Con.—If there is a war of races, which side will you fight on?

Scal.—I decline to answer that question!

Con.—You admit that if it be wrong to elect Seymour, the South will not be to blame for it, because he can't be elected unless the North does it, and yet you have not made up your mind—you a white man, educated in North Carolina, and having been here all your life,—whether you will fight for the protection of your own race and color, or join in against them! You can't tell which side you will fight on!!!

Comment is unnecessary. K.

The Radicals are squirming like angle worms on fish hooks, over the Herald's assertion that "the death of Thad Stevens leaves Gen. Butler at the head of the Radical party." We hope this intelligence will have a "large circulation."

For the Sentinel.

HOLDEN'S SQUIRES.

Editors of the Sentinel:—I wish to give you an account of a trial that recently came off in this vicinage.

A colored man, Wilson Leach, applied to one of the "Governor's" Squires, and got a warrant for the arrest of Ellic, on a charge of Larceny. The trial took place in the Court House before Daniel Blacknell, said to be the most intelligent negro in the county, and its novelty attracted a large company, white and black.

The evidence was that the prosecutor, Wilson, had his house broken open in the day time, while he was absent for a few minutes, and his flour stolen. The thief was tracked by the flour dropped from the door to the fence, then across the road, then over another fence into a field, where he was met with the bag of flour on his shoulders. He stated that he had flour—that he had got it from Pendergrass, who, however, lived in an opposite direction to the one he was coming from. It turned out that he got no flour from Pendergrass, and also that he had stated, that morning, that he had not a dust of flour or meal. The prosecutor returned to his house, a few minutes after the theft, and was in hot pursuit, but Ellic got to the village first. These and other facts were clearly proved. The evidence being closed, the Judge announced his decision.

"Ellic," says he, "stand up. You are guilty. No doubt about it. You stole old Wilson's flour. You need not deny it.—You did do it; but no body saw you steal it, and I am going to turn you loose. Wilson must pay the cost," (which was $2,50.)

The comment of the negroes was, that the Squire was a mighty good preacher, but a d——d poor Judge.

ANOTHER CASE.

A man in the Egypt District applied to Squire B., to issue a State's warrant to arrest a party charged with larceny. It was an urgent case. If prompt action was taken, the property stolen might be recovered, and the thief arrested. He wanted a State's warrant. The Squire told him that he had no power to issue a State's warrant—that he must go to the Governor, &c.

The prosecutor was urgent, insisting that the Justices used to give such warrants, and finally it was deemed best that he should go down to Squire Blacknell, who, it was said, had lately tried a case in Pittsboro' and knew the law. Accordingly, he went down to see Squire B. Blacknell told him that he had nothing to do with the case, as the theft did not take place in his District; that he must go back to Squire B.

The prosecutor returned almost breathless to Squire B. and earnestly begged him to issue the warrant. The Squire told him: "I don't know any thing in the world about fixing the papers. I never heard of such a thing before as a State's warrant; but I can beat him running and we will get a company and run him down, and I will be along!"

This, I hear, was accordingly done. After a hard chase, various turnings and doublings, they cornered upon him. The defendant, being ignorant of his rights, did not shoot any of them—and the Squire being along and foremost in the chase, it was said that all things were done "according to law." It turned out, however, that, having caught him, they had no papers to try him on.

CORRECTION.—Our attention has been called to an error which appeared in Judge Battle's speech as published in the Daily and Semi-Weekly "Sentinel" of Saturday last. The fourth paragraph of the speech as published reads:

"So far as North Carolina was concerned William W. Holden was appointed Provisional Governor. Through his agency a Convention of the people was called. An amended Constitution, in which were inserted all the changes demanded by the United States government, was framed, and it was submitted to, and ratified by the people."

It should have read:

"So far as North Carolina was concerned William W. Holden was appointed Provisional Governor. Through his agency, a Convention of the people was called. Amendments to the Constitution in which were inserted all the changes demanded by the United States government, were framed, and submitted to and ratified by the people."

Our readers and exchanges will please make the correction.

FLASH IN THE PAN.—We learn that Bro. Wearing the Grey Whitson and H. J. Menninger, the Radical Secretary of State, went down to Auburn, according to extensively published appointment, on Friday, to "speechify." The audience consisted of seven Conservatives, seventeen negroes and three scallawags. H. J. expressed his sore disappointment, both at Auburn and after he returned to Raleigh, at the inglorious failure, but his speech, which had evidently been written for a different kind of audience, had to be made, and so H. J. "let 'er rip." Nothing abashes Bro. Whitson, however, BUT the absence of "collards."

MORE FRANKING ABUSES.—We have been informed that large numbers of the "Standard" are being circulated under the "frank" of "BROOMALL M. C.," of Pennsylvania. Wonder if this PENNSYLVANIA M. C. will "frank" any copies of the "Standard," of the 19th., containing the cowardly and brutal insult to the women of the South! We dare all concerned to circulate that infamous issue.

BARBECUE AT NEW HOPE.

We learn that the complimentary Barbecue, at New Hope, in this county, given by his neighbors and friends to the Hon. Sion H. Rogers, on Saturday, was attended by between SEVEN AND NINE HUNDRED PERSONS, —including a large number of ladies. Between one and two hundred colored persons were also present. The barbecue was fine, the enthusiasm great and the speaking excellent and effective.

Speeches were made by Mr. Rogers, Col. W. J. Green, our candidate for Elector, and Maj. G. H. Wilder,—all of which were received with unbounded gratification and produced marked effect. The "Women Insulters" caught it on all hands. We hope to be furnished, by some friend who was present, with an account of this great demonstration.

Old Wake is alive and will do her duty!

ANOTHER FLAG PRESENTATION.—The patriotic ladies of the Eastern Ward have provided a beautiful Flag to be presented to the Seymour and Blair Club of the Ward.

A lofty pole will be at once erected, and the ceremony of presentation will take place at the Club Room, on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The other Clubs, and the ladies, generally, are invited.

THE EASTERN WARD CLUB.

We alluded briefly, on Saturday, to the meeting of the Eastern Ward Club, on Friday evening, at the new and substantial Club Room which they have just built. It was, in all respects, one of the most glorious and enthusiastic meetings of the campaign. The commodious Hall, which is capable of seating nearly 300 persons, was crowded to overflowing,—a large number of ladies being present,—and hundreds were outside unable to gain admittance.

The stage of the Hall, on the occasion, was decorated as follows: A large star, red, white and blue, over the names of Seymour and Blair. On the right of the stage a likeness of Seymour; on the left a likeness of Blair. Underneath the portraits, "Seymour and Blair," in large gilt letters. The stage was, also, profusely decorated with flags and flowers in vases. The President's stand was decorated with a wreath of roses, surrounded by gilt stars on a white ground. The Secretary's desk, to the left of the stage, was similarly decorated. The body of the Hall was festooned with evergreens, trailing beautifully on the walls, which were also ornamented with lithographs of our candidates.

The ladies of the Ward, generally, assisted in the preparation of the decorations, but those specially active in the beautiful work were Misses Delia and Annie Haywood, Miss Susser, Mrs. Alfred Upchurch, Mrs. A. H. Carter, Mrs. J. P. H. Russ, Mrs. J. S. Bryan, Miss Sophia Partridge and Mrs. V. Ballard.

Vaughan's Band lent enlivenment to the occasion, and the various speeches, by Messrs. Bledsoe, Husted, Gales, Parrish, Busbee, Badger and Russ, were received with great favor by the enthusiastic audience.

Mr. Parrish's speech was his maiden political effort, and reflected much credit upon him, both in its manner and matter.

We congratulate our friend, W. D. Haywood, Esq., the President of the Club, the other officers, and all its true members, upon their energy and zeal, and upon the success which has crowned their efforts.—They are laboring nobly, and every patriotic heart will bid them God speed in their glorious work!

Candidates for Congress.

The list of the Democratic and Conservative candidates for Congress in this State is now complete. We give their names below:

1st Dist. Hon. David A. Barnes, of Hertford.

2nd Dist. Col. Thomas S. Kenan, of Duplin.

3rd Dist. Col. A. A. McKoy, of Sampson.

4th Dist. Hon. Sion H. Rogers, of Wake.

5th Dist. Col. Livingston Brown, of Caswell.

6th Dist. Francis E. Shober, Esq., of Rowan.

7th Dist. Plato Durham, Esq., of Cleaveland.

We beg the reader to compare the above list with the Radical candidates. Was there ever a greater contrast? To the breach, friends! Let the Conservatives and Democrats of the State work, WORK, and elect our candidates!

REGISTRATION AND VOTING.

1. Remember that EVERY VOTER in North Carolina, in order to vote, must register between the 15th of October and the 3rd of November next. You must ALL register again, before you vote.

2. Remember that if voters are challenged, it must be done WHEN they register, and before they vote. No voter can be challenged at the time he votes, unless he registers at the same time.

3. Registrars must make public the times and places when and where they will receive the names of voters for registration, and they should not receive names at any other time. Therefore, both parties should be represented by proper persons at the Registrar's table, at such times, to prevent improper persons from registering. They must be there to challenge them. Don't forget this.

DOCUMENTS! DOCUMENTS!!

Our friends from all quarters are writing for documents. But these cannot be gotten up and printed without money. The Central Democratic Executive Committe here are doing all that can be done, until our friends in the several Counties respond to their calls for aid. So far, very little has been done. Our friends, North, have a use for all their money. We must help ourselves, and however poor we are, if all will do what they can, we can do what is necessary and will carry the State for Seymour and Blair. Our opponents are expending money largely. Let us do our best.

MORE RADICALISM.—The Legislature, at its late session, provided for the publication of the "Code of Civil Procedure." This is indispensable to all the officers of the State and county governments; they cannot discharge their duties without it. The act provides that "three hundred (copies) shall be exposed for sale, at a price not exceeding cost, to be fixed by the Secretary of State for the benefit of the State." Now the volume does not exceed an inch in thickness and contains 248 pages of printed matter.—The cost of publication, and all, cannot exceed, we should think, one dollar and fifty cents. Yet this Radical Secretary of State has put the price at THREE DOLLARS,—at least DOUBLE WHAT OUGHT TO BE THE VALUE and cost of the book!

This book, that ought to be sold as cheaply as possible, and which the Legislature intended should be so sold, is sold, at the instance of this Radical official, at double its value and cost.

"When the wicked rule, the people mourn."

JOS. WILLIAM AT ALBEMARLE.—This is Court week, in Stanly county, and on Monday, Jos. William, "the son of his father," with Pont Taylord, as a "light skirmisher," attempted to rally the faithful, at Albemarle, but they could not be found, not even enough of them to speckle the crowd they attempted to address. Jos. William, after throwing off a great deal of wind, was, we learn, very effectively replied to by Jas. M. McCorkle, Esq.—Wadesboro Argus.

THE RIOT IN GEORGIA—ACCOUNTS FROM GEORGIA PAPERS.

From the Macon Journal.

It seems that the Radicals had an appointment to hold a mass meeting there that day, at which their candidate for Congress, W. F. Pierce, intended to speak.—They had sent word in advance that they would be well armed and prepared for any one who might oppose them. Thus placed upon their guard, the citizens of the little village made the necessary arrangements for self-protection.

On Saturday morning, Pierce, John Murphy (the recently elected Radical Sheriff of Dougherty county,) and a man named Putney, left Albany with a motley force of armed negroes, and took the Camilla road. They gathered recruits at every plantation, until the entire force mustered about three hundred.

When they reached a point about three miles from Camilla the Sheriff and several citizens met them. The Sheriff of Mitchell county read Governor Bullock's proclamation forbidding such armed parades, and made them a speech, telling them not to enter the town with their arms; that they ought to stack them, and then they could go on to the court house and have their meeting in peace.

To this they replied they had come for a fight, and would not stack their guns. They marched on. Another party of citizens met them near the town, and gave them the same advice, and with the same result.—Pierce and Murphy, who were in a buggy, headed the motley crowd as it entered the town.

They had a wagon, in which was a band consisting of drums, fifes, and other instruments. This band was playing when the whole party marched up to the court house. It was now 1 o'clock P. M.

At this juncture of affairs a man by the name of Johns went up to the band wagon and ordered it to stop playing. He was very much under the influence of liquor, and was alone; but a man by the name of Maples was standing near him.

While Johns was there he accidentally discharged his gun, but the contents did not hit any one. In an instant a volley from the whole party of negroes was fired at Johns and Maples. The former was riddled, and thought to be mortally wounded, and the latter shot all over with small shot.

Now a force of about twenty citizens opened fired upon the crowd, which instantly broke and fled towards the woods, Pierce, Murphy, and Putney in the lead. Pierce and Murphy left their buggy. The whole baggage train of Pierce's army was captured on the spot. Pierce received a shot through the leg at the first fire, but was not wounded bad enough to prevent him from leading off in the retreat.

Pursuit was then commenced, and continued for eight miles, until darkness put an end to the bloody carnage. Eight miles from Camilla John Murphy was captured and knocked down with the butt of a gun. He would have been killed on the spot had he not proved himself a member of a noble Order to which he is a disgrace. Upon this his wounds were dressed and he was protected from further harm.

It is impossible to tell the whole number of killed and wounded. One man in the fight says he counted many dead bodies in the woods. At least fifty were wounded.

The citizens of Camilla captured nearly all the arms, and the entire baggage train, the band, and other equipments belonging to the invading army.

The defeat was signal and complete. It was a fight between twenty white men and three hundred negroes marshalled by their favorite leaders.

Pierce, Murphy, and Putney are all carpet-baggers, who came into the country since the war.

From the Macon Telegraph.

The casualties, as far as known, are nine negroes (who were in the band wagon) killed, and about thirty to forty negroes wounded, all very slightly with buckshot. There is a great deal of excitement here among the negroes, as a great many of them had friends and relatives who went to Camilla and have not returned.

The affray is most lamentable, and is due solely to the villainous machinations, arts, and contrivances of the worthless white scamps who stirred up and led these negroes to acts of lawlessness, menace, and insulting bravado, which could possibly have ended in no other way. It is true the firing seems to have been commenced by a drunken white man, who, in contempt, or for the purpose of intimidation, discharged his shot gun into the ground. But it is impossible, in the then temper of the negroes, who went into town armed, in spite of all remonstrances, to have a fuss, that they should have missed what they went to seek any five minutes in the hour.

The white people of Camilla clearly exercised the greatest forbearance. They fairly begged these lawless whites and negroes not to persist in their evil purposes. They most earnestly and persistently urged these men to respect the law and the Governor's proclamation and stack their arms before they came into the village, assuring them that if they would come unarmed they should have full liberty to occupy the court house and speak and hear as much as they pleased. But to come in that manner was to invite a disturbance. The answer was, "That is what we come for," and that they would enter town regardless of consequences. A wild and furious yell of defiance was the response to all temperate and well meant remonstrances from the leading citizens of Camilla who met these armed and furious desperadoes a mile from that peaceful village.

The people of Camilla, in a word, did all they could to prevent an outbreak, and the negroes went there to have one. The event which led to the collision immediately upon their entering town only forestalled for a minute or two some other trifle which would inevitably have lighted the fire. A volley of a hundred muskets answered the discharge downwards of the drunken man's shot gun. Three citizens were severely wounded, and several others more slightly. In a second twenty bystanders poured into the crowd of negroes a volley of buckshot, and the wretched affair was over.

LAWLESSNESS.—The unsettled condition of our country, and the incapacity and indifference generally of those appointed as civil officers, give almost unlimited power to bad men so disposed to commit deeds of lawlessness with little or no fear of detection. A robbery was perpetrated in this county on the 13th., which from boldness and audacity is unpardonable. A crowd of twelve or fifteen men, a majority supposed to have been whites disguised, went to the residence of Dr. E. A. Crudup, some distance below Louisburg, and demanded money. Being told that there was none in the house, or for them, they instituted a search and succeeded, we learn, in finding a small amount, some $25. This with a double barrel gun was the extent of the Doctor's loss. The robbers were followed some distance, but finally separating, all traces were lost. Under the present "rule" there is no probability of any further steps being taken to ferret out the party. We give the facts as we have heard them.—Henderson Index.

Seymour and Blair in Nash.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—At a meeting held at Peach Tree Grove, Nash Co., N. C., on Saturday, the 19th. instant, for the purpose of forming a Seymour and Blair Club,

The meeting was organized by calling George R. Marshbour to the Chair as President, whereupon W. G. Wheless was appointed Secretary.

Then came forward Samuel T. Williams, Esq., and delivered one of his able and enthusiastic speeches. For all that Capt. Williams is quite a young man, he is one of the ablest and best speakers that the good old North State has, of his age, and, should he live, he will make a mark of distinction and honor, that will reflect great credit upon our glorious old State.

Capt. Williams cordially endorses the nomination of Col. Sion H. Rogers, and not only called upon his many friends present at the meeting to support the nominee, but he is urging his friends, all over the District, to support him.

After the conclusion of Capt. Williams' speech, there came forward forty-three and signed their names—this being the first attempt. I think, by having one or two more meetings, we will be able to swell our list to one hundred and fifty. Sambo did not participate, but I think a good many will come in at the eleventh hour, as there are a good many upon the fence, and, unless some good Radical comes along and converts them over, I think a good many will fall off on the Seymour side.

Scallawags are getting very scarce, down here. We have a new way of converting them, by getting them upon a Seymour mule, and the mule, finding himself in bad company, refuses to be rode, and throws his rider upon a stump and knocks every particle of Radicalism out of him. The Democracy of Nash will speak in tones of thunder in November next. I think she will roll up the biggest Democratic majority for Seymour and Blair that she has ever given.

W. G. W.

THE PURITY OF HORATIO SEYMOUR'S PRIVATE LIFE.—A lady furnishes The Revolution (Mrs. Cady Stanton) the following in relation to the private worth and character of Horatio Seymour:

"In private conversation Governor Seymour is instructing and interesting, and is, if possible, more remarkable for his elegance of manner and graceful courtesy in the drawing room than for his matchless eloquence and magnetic power as a public speaker. Although thus most captivating in private life, he is in no sense a man of forms or fashion. In his presence the plainest persons are placed at their ease, and feel at once that they are with a kind and good man. Democratic in all his instincts, principles, and purposes; simple and unostentatious; strictly temperate—he uses neither strong nor spirituous liquors, nor tobacco; of the most refined tastes and elevated morals. It is said of him by those who have known him from his early youth that he was never under the influence of strong drink—never known to tell an untruth or utter a profane oath—to indulge in a vulgar story, a coarse anecdote, or an obscene jest; nor did he ever violate the proprieties of the Sabbath, or sit at a gambler's table, or cross the threshold of more fashionable vice. Purity of life is with him a marked characteristic. Educated in the Episcopal Church, he has ever remained faithful to its communion, adorning its doctrines by a blameless life and multiplied deeds of charity; yet free from sectarianism, he has contributed liberally to the erection and maintenance of every other church and place of public worship in the city of Utica and its vicinity. An active trustee of Hamilton College (a Presbyterian institution,) he has been made by it a LL.D., as well as by a Methodist University in another State.—The children of the orphan asylum in Utica have been guests at his house, (which is a house of prayer,) and it was noticeable that when the news of his nomination for the Presidency reached Utica, these children spontaneously turned out in procession, and manifested their joy in many pleasant ways peculiar to the innocency of childhood."

THE PUBLIC DEBT.—The Ohio "States man" illustrates the immensity of the National debt thus:

"At $2 per bushel the public debt represents 1,261,767 245 bushels of wheat, or 37,853,017 tons. To transport this amount in two horse wagons, a lowing one ton to each, would require 37,853,047 wagons and 75,706,034 horses! Give each team thirty feet space, and you have a cavalcade which would encircle the globe nearly nine times."

Twelve hundred and sixty one million bushels of wheat at two dollars a bushel it would take to pay the debt; and the teams to haul it would reach two hundred and twenty thousand miles; or in one dollar bill another has calculated, and piled one upon another, the pile would be three hundred and ninety eight miles high!

In a recent speech before the Constitutional Union Association, of Brooklyn, Mayor Hoffman, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, said:

"He heard a leading Republican say the other day that the Southern people did not seem to be as well contented as when Lee first surrendered. Why should they be, when they found themselves placed under negro domination, and the subjects of hate, and spite, and revenge from their fellow-citizens of the North? The Radicals claim that they have freed 4,000,000 of slaves.—Well if they have they have disfranchised millions of white men. (Applause.) If they have taken the fetters off the negro they have put them on the Supreme Court of the United States. (Applause.) They had deprived the Supreme Court, appointed by the lamented Lincoln, from sitting in judgment on the acts of Congress. The Radical leaders now advocate measures more extreme than even Wendell Phillips held five years ago. And the Republican party were supporting them in it."

The great earthquake in South America swallowed up "three hundred millions of property." Our Radical party swallows up five hundred millions every year. The party is a worse gormandizer than the earthquake. It takes bigger swallows, and swallows oftener.

Sale of Valuable Lands.

IN PURSUANCE of a decree of the Superior Court of Randolph County, I shall proceed to sell, on the premises, to the highest bidder, on Wednesday, 16th of September, inst., that valuable Tract of Land, the homestead of the late Alfred G. Foster, situated in the North-west corner of Randolph County, on the head waters of Uwharrie, and containing nine hundred acres.—About one-half of the tract is cleared and in a high state of cultivation, the balance heavily timbered with oak, hickory, poplar, ash, &c. The improvements are of the best and most substantial character, consisting of a large and commodious Dwelling, with all necessary out-buildings, stables, barns, &c. The plantation is abundantly watered by numerous never-failing springs, is well adapted to the growth of grasses, grain and tobacco, and is one of the healthiest localities in the State.

A credit of twelve months will be given, bond and approved security required, and title reserved till the further order of the Court.

JULIUS A. GRAY,
Adm'r of Alfred G. Foster, dec'd.

☞ I will at the same time and place offer for rent, privately or publicly, for the next year, several valuable tracts of land belonging to the heirs of Robert H. Gray, dec'd, and also my own plantation: all adjoining the above.

Parties desiring to secure comfortable homes and good farms would do well to call and examine the premises. JULIUS A. GRAY.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE ALABAMA DELEGATION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26, M.

The delegation from the Alabama Legislature, having neglected to bring the authenticated copy of the resolution under which they are acting, will await its arrival, before officially visiting the President.

Governor Smith is with the party, by request of the Legislature, to advise and support the delegation. He has no official functions to perform here, in connection with the application for troops. He is of the opinion, however, that the action of the Legislature, though unusual in form, meets the requirements of the Constitution in the matter of securing Federal aid for Alabama. He does not fully sympathize with the Legislature in its call for additional troops, and expresses his confidence in his own ability, by the civil machinery, to maintain the peace of the State.

The people desire peace, and he has assurance, from men of both parties, of support in his efforts to that end. There is some disorder on the East of the Tennessee river, and North of Mobile, but elsewhere throughout the State there are no indications of disturbances and no disposition to resist the law, and, in no other portion of the State, has any officer, who has been regularly installed in office, been resisted in the performance of his duties.

The Governor is apprehensive that, during the excitement of the coming election, imprudent parties may commit acts which will lead to serious disturbances, unless restrained by some assurance from the President, that they will be promptly put down by Federal authority. Beyond this assurance, Gov. Smith thinks no Federal interference is necessary, at present.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage has belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be grateful remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the falsehood of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $15,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($9,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.
